David Hilliard was born on September 21 in Claremont, New Hampshire. He lived in Plainfield, NH until 1940. At that time he moved to Ascutney, VT and lived there until 1952.

While in high school he was on the ski team and played the French horn in the school band and orchestra. He joined the Air Force in 1953 and obtained his pilot's license the same year. He was trained in aerobatics and stunt flying. In 1953 he was stationed in Bermuda at Kindley Air Force Base and received his Seaplane Rating. David loved snow skiing and he continued to ski until the year 2000. He would ski in the states of New Hampshire, Vermont, and California and even in the Alps in France. He loved to vacation with his wife in Europe.

He worked for IBM for 38 years and retired in 1993. He lived in California until 2002 and then moved here to Lawton where he worked at Ft. Sill and Walmart until 2018.
