Something new happening at The Brentwood Healthcare in your Home

We met with Travis Guinn from Physician House-calls. They provide health care in your home!

They provide primary care services, just like physicians and mid-level providers in clinics everywhere. They are able to make house calls to independent and assisted living communities, as well as private homes. In addition to making face-to-face visits, their physicians and clinical staff also provide a broad range of services. How many residents and family members would be interested in this FREE service? They bill to Private insurance, Medicare, etc, like a primary care clinic does.

We believe many of our residents would benefit from this service however, it is still the residents or the POA's choice to change providers.

If interested please contact Angie Odom, Community Relations Manager or Carol Shaw, Director of Nursing.
